

CUMULATIVE INDEX

- tributes to W. E. B. Du Bois's study of Philadelphia blacks, 4:176-77, 240; letter from, 4:178; Eaton, John, 3:40, *41-42; letter from, 6:107
- Eaton, Oscar Benjamin, 10:458
- Ebbitt House (D.C.), 6:562
- Ebell Woman's Club (Oakland, Calif.), 7:24
- Ebenezer Baptist Church (Austin, Tex.), 11:342
- Echols, J. H., 2:404, *405
- Eclectical Medical Institution (Cincinnati), 5:483, 484
- Ecorruptahah, 2:79-80, *85
- Eddy, James, 3:374
- Edelman, Louis: letter from, 7:107-*8
- Edinger, Mrs. Frank A., 7:22
- Edington, David Henry, 12:100, *101
- Edison, Thomas Alva, 11:308, 563; 13:191
- Edmunds, Frederick E.: letter from, 13:80-81; letter to, 13:83-84
- Edmunds, George Franklin, 4:*510; 5:231, 458
- Ednah Cheney Club, 8:476, 479
- Education, black, 1:256; address before Alabama Colored State Teachers Association, 10:292-98; aid plan suggested by BTW, 11:552-54; appropriation of taxes questioned, 11:532-33; Association of Negro Industrial and Secondary Schools, 13:27, 28-29, 42, 314-15; attitude of whites toward, 11:472-73; BTW appeals to B. R. Tillman on behalf of, 1:85-87; BTW elected trustee of Fisk University, 10:197; BTW lobbies for Smith-Lever funds, 13:188; BTW on public schools, 10:498-501; BTW opposes integration in southern public schools, 13:514; BTW plans to use Jeanes Fund to build schoolhouses, 10:83-84; BTW sees weakness in college graduates ability to write English, 10:473-74; BTW urges attention to, 9:165; BTW's advice on teaching of rhetoric, 10:188; BTW's evaluation of needs, 13:225-27; BTW's school in Malden, W.Va., 1:229-33; BTW's strategy for helping rural black schools, 10:259; before Civil War, 13:367; benefits both blacks and whites, 13:18-19; better facilities in cities attract blacks, 13:264-65; better opportunities in North, 12:71-72; black children do as well as whites, 13:361; compared with white education in South, 12:476-81; controversy on D.C. school board, 11:303-4, 311, 314; denominational schools need aid, 11:129-31; donation of J. H. Schiff, 11:302-3; during Reconstruction, 1:256, 416-17; economically beneficial to state, 13:20; fails to receive proper tax support, 9:583; favored by whites in Alabama counties, 12:304; federal funds wasted, 11:511; financial contributions of blacks, 13:237; Freedmens Bureau School at Tuskegee remembered, 12:177; function of, 11:279-83; funds sought for study of schools in South, 12:44-45; in Alabama, 13:318-19, 339; in Macon County, Ala., 11:263-64, 269-70, 330-31; in North Dakota, 12:138-39; J. Rosenwald's schoolhouse building program, 13:63-64, 139, 196-97, 203-4, 304-5, 386; low teacher salaries, 13:26, 169, 413; many black children receive no schooling, 13:169; medical schools needed, 13:38, 200, 201; mission of Hampton and Tuskegee Institutes described by H. B. Frissell, 13:311-12; need for high schools discussed, 10:342-43; need to convert whites to idea of, 11:381; obstacles overcome by BTW, 13:462; Phelps-Stokes Fund supports survey of schools, 13:28, 36, 37, 314; plan to survey schools in South, 12:39-40; presidency of Fisk University discussed, 10:182, 184; receives little help from Smith-Lever Fund, 13:175, 179; reduces crime, 13:19; report of inspection of southern schools, 12:190-93; role according to BTW, 12:17-19; role of American Missionary Association, 13:410-11; role of federal government, 11:97-98; Rosenwald schools, 10:591; rural schoolhouse building explained to G. Eastman, 13:317; school in Wilson, N.C., 10:448; seen as solution of race problem, 9:136; self-help in extending