

The BOOKER T. WASHINGTON Papers
From Benjamin Winston Walker

Montgomery, Feby 24th 1887

Dr Sir I arranged as I told you to have your bill<sup>1</sup> called up when my name was reached.

This was done & the bill has passed and is now a law fixing titles of your property. Respfy

An Announcement to Students

[Tuskegee, Ala.] Feb. 26 [188]7

In answer to the request made to me by the students, I would say that a "Students' Court" may be established and may have power to decide upon offenses and inflict punishments there for except in cases where the principal reserves the right to try those offenses himself and the Principal reserves the right to change or modify any punishment inflicted by said court. From William B. Paterson

Marion, Ala., March 7. 1887

Dear Friend Washington, I do not know that I can say anything regarding Program. You have seen from the Herald<sup>1</sup> what we are doing. Our white friends are jubilant with us, the others hardly know what to think, and they say but little. I will run up to Montgomery tomorrow
