To Samuel Chapman Armstrong

Tuskegee, Ala., Jan. 29 1891

Dear Gen. Armstrong: I was in Montgomery yesterday and I think I can get that bill through as it is late in the session. I shall have to pay about $15 to have it "watched."

Enclosed I send a map showing where Tuskegee graduates are teaching. I hope it is satisfactory to you.

In addition to the $4000 left the school by Mrs. Baker she left me personally $3000 for the benefit of my children. This is a great relief to me and will enable me to devote myself more fully to the cause.

I am preparing to send a copy of the enclosed circular to each one of the Hampton graduates. All here wish to be remembered to you.
Yours truly

Booker T. Washington

P.S. I have having the bill drawn so as to prevent whiskey being sold within 3 miles of the reservation. Will this suit?

From Elizabeth L. Bullard

Boston Mass. Feb. 4th [1891]

Dear Sir, I have just rec'd Gen. Armstrong's note enclosing your two about the Apache Bill in the Alabama legislature.

I do not know how to express my gratitude to you for your efforts. This School for the Apache children has been kept for about two years & the progress of the Pupils is all that we could ask. They are both docile & intelligent, also fond of their Teachers.

The Parents show a most creditable desire that their Children
