TLP Con. 106 BTW Papers DLC.

<sup>1</sup> Orpheus McAdoo, a graduate of Hampton in 1876 who taught in Virginia schools before returning to teach at Hampton. In 1881 he took BTW's place in charge of the Indian boys' dormitory. In 1886 he joined a group of Negro singers who toured Europe, Australia, and New Zealand. He formed his own company of singers in 1890, composed mostly of Hampton graduates, that toured Europe and South Africa.
