

The BOOKER T. WASHINGTON Papers

by railroad. It is one mile from the center of the town, on a farm on high land, with large groves near by. No whisky is sold in the county, and the location is quiet and retired, just the place for rest. Tuskegee has always been noted for healthfulness, and the nights in Tuskegee in August are always cool and pleasant. Tuskegee is forty miles east of Montgomery, and five miles from Chehaw Station on the Western railroad, with which it is connected by the Tuskegee railroad.

NEED OF REST

Many ministers, teachers and other brain workers, feel that they cannot afford to take a rest. Experience shows that any one who gives himself one or two weeks of rest and change of scenery, can do much better work because of it. It is especially urged that churches provide the means for their minister to attend the "Tuskegee Assembly."

BILL OF FARE

Everything possible will be done to provide a good and tempting bill of fare for each meal. Among the lecturers will be all or a portion of such well known persons as these: Rev. R. M. Cheeks,¹ B.D., Rev. R. T. Pollard, Rev. W. J. Larkin, Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, Rev. E. J. Penney, A.M., N. B. Young, A.M., J. Q. Johnson,² A.B., Mrs. Hallie Dillon Johnson, M.D., Mrs. Booker T. Washington, A.B., Prof. J. D. McCall, A.B., Rev. H. B. Peterson,³ B.D. Those who expect to come should write at once and engage rooms. Address: Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee, Ala.
